

List of Organizations That Need Support

- In addition to the resources found on the Women's March Sussex – Delaware post — <https://womensmarchsussex.com/humanitarian-crisis-how-you-can-help/>, please consider the following actions to help migrant children and their families.
- The Unitarian Universalist Association Love Resists Accompaniment Program (<https://www.uua.org/lovesresists/accompaniment>) lists a variety of actions that you can do right now such as opening your home and heart to sponsor asylum seekers, joining a volunteer team to support frontline justice-makers, and supporting a local or national immigration bond fund.
- No More Deaths (NMD) — <http://forms.nomoredeaths.org/en/>, a humanitarian organization based in southern Arizona, is currently asking folks to volunteer in Tucson for at least 2 weeks at a time, as well as a number of other requests in the Arizona area. Essentially, these volunteers will make it possible for NMD employees to continue their humanitarian aid work while NMD prepares for Dr Scott Warren's retrial (see <http://forms.nomoredeaths.org/statements-from-scott-warren-greg-kuykendall/>). They are in need of funds as well as supplies.
- Freedom for Immigrants (<https://www.freedomforimmigrants.org/visitor-volunteer-resources>) works to end the isolation of people in detention through an extensive network of volunteers.
- Diocesan Migrant & Refugee Services, Inc. (DMRS) — <http://www.dmrs-ep.org/> is a full-service immigration legal aid clinic serving low-income immigrants and refugees residing in the southwestern United States.
- Catholic Charities of the Rio Grande Valley (CCRGV) — <https://www.catholiccharitiesrgv.org/Home.aspx> with the help of the Sacred Heart Church, the City of McAllen, as well as volunteers and donations, opened its doors to the Respite center, located at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, in McAllen, Texas.
