In one paragraph, please describe why you would be a good candidate to be a Youth Ambassador.

In what way/s would you be interested in participating? Please check all that apply.

- Writing articles or letters for the SDARJ newsletter.
- Communicating to other students re: the SDARJ Scholarship and other opportunities for students.
- Participating or helping with lessons/modules re: equity and other topics.
- Serving as an advisor to the Education Committee: re the scholarship application and other issues.
- Serving as a panel member for SDARJ when needed.
- Participating in SDARJ community events and providing the youth perspective on major issues such as equity in the schools, youth voting and school activities.

I understand that my commitment will not interfere with school hours and I agree (as does parent/guardian if you are under 18 years of age) to be contacted by a member of the SDARJ as needed to be informed of opportunities for action.
